Deadline: 30th Sept, 2025

🔹 About Outlfy

Outlfy is not just another company. We are a Tech Growth & Scale Partner, helping ambitious founders and businesses scale faster with breakthrough strategies, automation, and data-driven systems.

We don't just advise — we build, execute, and partner with businesses to remove the headache of tech and unlock real growth.

This is not a typical internship. It's a fast-track leadership experience, where you'll work directly with the founder and solve challenges that impact businesses globally.

🔹 What You'll Work On

- Design real-world business strategies that shape client success
- Build pitches, and frameworks using tools like Canva, GPT, Notion, and more
- Research markets & create playbooks that directly influence growth
- Take ownership of projects end-to-end, with freedom to experiment and innovate
- Deploy and adapt new-age tech tools to solve business problems
- Collaborate on case studies & success stories to strengthen Outlfy's brand

🔹 Who You Are

We're looking for top 5% talent — someone who is:

- Ambitious & Driven – wants to create impact, not just tick tasks
- Sharp Thinker – breaks down problems and builds bold solutions
- Fast Learner – adapts to new tools, domains, and tech at lightning speed
- Creative & Bold – unafraid to challenge conventional approaches
- Owner's Mindset – takes full accountability for results
- Startup Curious – passionate about scaling, disruption, and building smarter
- (Bonus) Has a basic understanding of coding/tech

🔹 Selection Task (Mandatory)

Your application will only be considered if you complete this task:

1. Go through this presentation carefully: Outlfy Presentation
2. Create a detailed Expansion & Outreach Strategy for Outlfy (global + Indian markets).
    - Focus on practical, actionable steps.
    - Be creative, bold, and data-driven.
3. Important: The strategy must be 100% your original work.
    - ❌ No AI-generated or copy-paste content.
    - ✅ All submissions will be checked via AI plagiarism detection tools. If plagiarism is found, your application will be directly rejected.
4. Submission Format: PDF or Word document
5. Send your completed strategy + CV/portfolio to: 📩 info@outlfy.com

👉 Note: Your effort in this task will be the primary basis of selection and will also form the foundation of your interview discussion.

🔹 What You'll Gain

- Direct mentorship from the Founder & CEO
- Exposure to strategy + execution at startup speed
- Hands-on mastery of tools & technologies reshaping business
- Portfolio of real impact projects that stand out in your career
- Entry into a network of ambitious startups and founders

✨ At Outlfy, we believe in talent that dares to dream bigger, move faster, and build smarter. If you're ready to prove yourself, this internship is your launchpad.
